DEDICATION

This devotional is dedicated to God Almighty, the Author and Finisher of our faith, whose grace, wisdom, and unfailing love make all this devotional possible.

Also, I dedicate this book to every believer who desires a deeper relationship with God and seeks to grow in the knowledge of His Word. May these pages inspire you to pursue God wholeheartedly, walk closely with Him daily, and experience the transforming power of His presence.

May this devotional be a blessing and a tool for spiritual growth to all who read it.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First, I give all glory to God Almighty, whose grace, wisdom, and faithfulness have brought this vision to life. This book is a reflection of His dealings, inspiration, and the continuous lessons He teaches me daily. I am grateful for the privilege of being a vessel through which His truth can reach others. Lord, thank You for the strength to begin, the grace to continue, and the courage to finish.

I am deeply grateful for the people God has placed in my life at different seasons. To everyone who has encouraged me, prayed for me, spoken words of wisdom, supported my growth, and challenged me to become better, thank you. Your contributions, both seen and unseen, are appreciated.

To my family, friends, mentors, spiritual leaders, and well-wishers, editor, thank you for being part of my journey. Your love, support, and encouragement have made a difference in ways words cannot fully express.

I also appreciate everyone who has been part of my journey in faith, fellowship, leadership, and service. Every experience has taught me something valuable and strengthened my desire to see lives transformed through the knowledge of God's Word.

To every reader, thank you for choosing to take this journey with me. My prayer is that CALLED FOR MORE will inspire you to seek God more intentionally, discover your purpose, develop your faith, and embrace the person God is calling you to become.

May these 30 days be the beginning of a deeper walk with God, a renewed hunger for His presence, and a life of intentional pursuit of His purpose.

There is more in God. There is more to discover, more to become, and more to accomplish. May we never settle for less than all that He has called us to be.

With love and gratitude,

Okosun Rhoda.

PREFACE

This devotional was written with a sincere desire to draw hearts closer to God in the midst of everyday life. In a world filled with noise, distractions, and endless responsibilities, it is easy to lose sight of the quiet moments where faith is nurtured and strengthened.

Each page of this devotional is an invitation to pause, reflect, and reconnect with God's presence. It was written by the help of the Holy Spirit and scripture based and mostly verses that changed my life.

Whether you are new to your faith journey or have walked with God for many years, this devotional seeks to encourage, challenge, and uplift you. My prayer is that through these devotions, you will find renewed hope, deeper understanding, and a stronger relationship with God.

May this devotional become a daily companion that reminds you of His love, His promises, and His faithfulness.

DISCLAIMER

This book does not take the place of the Bible. You are encouraged to study God's word daily as this book will help you cultivate a lifestyle of reading God's word.

DAY 1

WHO YOU ARE

SCRIPTURE:

"But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvelous light".

-1 Peter 2:9 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

This Scripture is a reminder of who you are in Christ. You are a peculiar person, meaning you are special, unique, and set apart for God. You are born into royalty, and God is deeply interested in every aspect of your life. This understanding empowers you to rule your world. It helps you see beyond yourself and begin to see yourself the way Christ sees you.

You were called out of darkness into light, and you are destined to shine continually. The Bible says in Proverbs 4:18 (KJV):

"But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day".

You are God's special possession. I always remind myself that "I am God's feminine expression." You can also declare who you are in Christ with confidence.

PRAYER:

As you step out today, I pray that you continually express the image God has placed in you and see yourself exactly as God sees you. Amen.

TO-DO LIST:

Confess this Scripture to yourself today and believe it with all your heart.

CONFESSION:

"This is the day the LORD has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it".

— Psalm 118:24 (KJV)

DAY 2:

SEEK THE THINGS ABOVE

SCRIPTURE:

"If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God".

-Colossians 3.1(KJV)

REFLECTION:

Christ commands us to seek the things above; His rich and eternal treasures. This means you can live beyond your present circumstances. Whether it is sickness, challenges, or limitations. You are not meant to be confined by them.

From today onward, set your mind on things your strength or ability alone cannot achieve.

The Scripture says, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" - (Philippians 4:13, KJV).

You can become the most successful person in your family. You can excel in your profession, workplace, and academics if you set your heart on things above.

Colossians 3:2 instructs us to "set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth". Everything is possible through Jesus Christ.

PRAYER:

I pray that your mind receives divine light today. May you set your heart on how God sees and positions you, not how people see you. I pray that the possibilities in your heart come alive, and what once seemed impossible becomes possible from now on.

TO-DO LIST:

Picture where you want to be in the next five years. Place that vision in your heart and commit it to prayer.

CONFESSION:

"This is the day the LORD has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it".

— Psalm 118:24 (KJV)

DAY 3:

GOD CARES FOR YOU

SCRIPTURE:

"Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall He not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?"

- Matthew 6:30(KJV)

REFLECTION:

The scripture above reveals how deeply God cares for us. If He clothes the grass of the field, which exists only for a short time; how much more will He care for you created in His image and likeness (Genesis 1:26)?

Therefore, cast all your cares upon Him, because He cares for you (1 Peter 5:7).

God has shown up for me in many ways in my family, career, and education. He always shows up when I fully surrender everything to Him. God can also show up for you if you allow Him to play His rightful role as 'God'. He is the Almighty, and He is more than able to handle all your problems.

PRAYER:

I pray that you become vulnerable before God today, holding nothing back—just total surrender. May God help you in that situation that seems to have no way out. Amen.

TO-DO LIST:

Lay all your burdens and problems before God today, and be expectant of His miracle.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 4:

THE PEACE OF THE LORD

SCRIPTURE:

"And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus".

- Philippians 4:7(KJV)

REFLECTION:

The peace of the Lord is essential in our daily lives. It helps us navigate difficult times and enables us to receive answers even when situations seem confusing. God gives peace to His children, as the Scripture says:

"Now the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all". — 2 Thessalonians 3:16 (KJV)

This peace comes when you trust in God's Word wholeheartedly. Trusting Him completely brings peace, and God's peace guides you in the right direction as you walk with Him.

"Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee". — Isaiah 26:3 (KJV)

According to our opening scripture, the peace of the Lord surpasses understanding. It helps you discern what God is doing in your life. A troubled mind cannot receive from God; that is why God grants peace to His children.

PRAYER:

I pray that as you go out today, you will be led by peace. May God grant you peace in your business, family, and education. May answers to your challenges become clear, and may the peace of the Lord be with you. Amen.

TO-DO LIST:

Speak peace into every area of your life your business, marriage, relationships, education, and finances and trust God for a divine miracle.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 5

THE PERSON OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

SCRIPTURE:

"And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you forever;"

- John 14:16 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

The Holy Spirit is the promise of the Father to us, His children. He was given to comfort us in this troubled world, help us propagate the gospel, and empower us to live the God-kind of life. The Holy Spirit Himself is our Helper, and He speaks the very thoughts of the Father.

"For what man knows the things of a man, except the spirit of man which is in him? Even so, no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God".

— 1 Corinthians 2:11 (KJV)

This is why the Holy Spirit is essential in the life of a Christian. Without the help of the Holy Spirit, it is impossible to please God.

The Holy Spirit teaches us the will of God and reveals the Scriptures to us:

"These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual".

— 1 Corinthians 2:13 (KJV)

A person without the Holy Spirit cannot fully understand the Scriptures, because He reveals the hidden truths of God (1 Corinthians 2:10).

The Holy Spirit also brings power to the believer power to heal the sick, raise the dead, and call forth things that do not exist.

"But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth".

— Acts 1:8 (KJV)

He gives believers the grace and boldness to preach the Word of God through evangelism. When a believer receives the Holy Spirit, He produces fruit in their life (Galatians 5:22–23), and this fruit enables us to live the Christian life successfully.

You need the Holy Spirit to function effectively in life and to do the work of God, because He empowers you.

PRAYER:

I pray that the Holy Spirit becomes fully active in your life. May you enjoy the benefits of the Holy Spirit and receive the grace to obey Him. Amen.

TO-DO LIST:

If you have not yet received the Holy Spirit, He is available to you today. Seek Him and desire Him, and He will come to you freely when you invite Him. If you have already received Him, continually invite Him into your daily life. Ask Him to help you live for God and give you the grace to obey Him.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 6

YOU ARE NOTHING WITHOUT GOD

SCRIPTURE:

"I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing".

-John 15:5(KJV)

REFLECTION:

According to our opening verse, God makes it clear that we must abide in Him, because without Him we can accomplish nothing. Our lives depend on God our success, health, finances, and ministry all depend on Him.

Today, let us totally submit to God and allow Him to bring out the best in us and work powerfully in our lives. Become vulnerable before Him and make God the center of your life for His glory. The answer to that challenge you are facing is complete surrender. When we abide in Him, He has promised to abide in us.

"For God is able to do exceedingly, abundantly above all that we ask or think". — Ephesians 3:20 KJV

PRAYER:

Today, pray that God will use your life for His glory as you surrender completely to Him. Amen.

TO-DO LIST:

Identify the areas of your life that need God's intervention and consciously surrender them to Him.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 7

SALVATION

SCRIPTURE:

"Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved".

- Acts 4:12(KJV)

REFLECTION:

According to our opening verse, salvation is found only through Jesus Christ. Salvation is a gift from God (Ephesians 2:8–9); it is freely given and eternal.

We are not saved because of our good works, but because of God's mercy. The Scripture says: "He saved us, not because of works of righteousness that we had done, but according to His mercy, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit". — Titus 3:5 (KJV).

Therefore, do not focus on your past or your present condition. Simply surrender to God; Jesus has the power to save you completely from sin, guilt, and your past.

If you have not yet accepted Jesus Christ, the Bible clearly outlines how you can receive salvation: "For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." — Romans 10:10 (KJV)

Confess your sins and believe in your heart that God has accepted you and made you a new person. In this kingdom, we are justified by faith.

Glory! Hallelujah! Welcome to the family of God.

The next step is to trust God to help you live the Christian life:

"For it is God who works in you, both to will and to do for His good pleasure". — Philippians 2:13 (KJV). God bless you.

PRAYER:

Pray today that God will help you to follow Him and continue trusting His leading.

TO-DO LIST:

Examine your Christian walk. If you have just given your life to Christ, intentionally follow God through regular Bible reading and prayer.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 8

I AM HELPED BY GOD

SCRIPTURE:

"The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in Him, and I am helped; therefore my heart greatly rejoices, and with my song I will praise Him".

- Psalm 28:7(KJV)

REFLECTION:

When you depend on God, help is always available. God can be trusted, and He knows every detail about your life even before you ask.

If you are going through any difficulty, depend on God today. Trust Him with all your heart and make Him your only option. Our key verse reminds us that we are already helped. This means our responsibility is to trust Him, and His help will surely manifest. Always remember this truth:

"There is nobody who depends on God that will be put to shame." — Archbishop Benson Idahosa

PRAYER:

Lord, help me to depend on You completely. Teach me to seek You first at all times. Amen.

TO-DO LIST:

Reflect on how God has helped you in the past and thank Him. Also, intentionally involve God in everything you do today.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 9

GOD IS WITH ME

SCRIPTURE:

"Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding".

- Isaiah 40:28 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

His name is Emmanuel, which means God with us. Our God never leaves nor forsakes us. He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. According to our scripture, He does not come and go, He remains constant.

God is with us in both our darkest moments and our happiest times. He stands by you, helping, guiding, and strengthening you. God is deeply interested in you and desires to work in your life. He is ever-present.

Today, wherever you go, maintain the consciousness that God is with you. Therefore, do not be afraid.

PRAYER:

Lord, help me to be continually conscious of Your presence in my daily life. Amen.

TO-DO LIST:

Consciously invite the Holy Spirit into your day today, and ask Him to manifest Himself in all that you do.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 10

SERVE THE LORD

SCRIPTURE:

"And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might".

- Deuteronomy 6:5 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

You already have everything you need to serve God. When you first gave your life to Christ, you may have wondered how to serve Him or fulfill His will. The good news is that all you need has been given to you not based on your works or who you are, but through the knowledge of God. Scripture says in 2 Peter 1:3 (KJV):

"According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue".

You can serve in so many ways, with your offering, working in your local church, in your career and do this with all your heart.

The Scriptures guide us to know the way of the Lord: "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness." — 2 Timothy 3:16(KJV)

Through the knowledge of God and His Word, you can please Him. Glory! Hallelujah!

PRAYER:

Lord, help me to know Your Word today. Help me find delight in it and apply it to my life.

TO-DO LIST:

Begin reading any chapter of the Bible today, and pray for understanding before you start.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 11

TRUST IN THE LORD

SCRIPTURE:

"Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding".

- Proverbs 3:5(KJV)

REFLECTION:

To trust means to believe someone fully, even without evidence. When God asks you to trust Him, He wants you to rely on His promises and act by faith. God is very intentional about His plans for you, but He cannot complete them if your heart is filled with doubt. He needs your trust.

Remember, as you trust Him, the enemy may test you. Always believe in God for who He is and maintain unwavering trust. Do not rely on your own understanding or try to "fix" things on your own, you will fail. God knows the beginning from the end. Trust Him! He will not put you to shame.

PRAYER:

Lord, help me to trust and obey You today. Keep my heart fixed on You.

TO-DO LIST:

Submit every area of your life to Him.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 12

YOUR LIFE IS HIDDEN IN CHRIST

SCRIPTURE:

"For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God."

— Colossians 3:3(KJV)

REFLECTION:

Oh, what a beautiful truth! Your life is hidden in Christ hallelujah! The enemy has no clue about your life. You are preserved and protected in Christ. Whatever your dreams and ambitions are, they are safe and secure.

Your salvation provides protection. As Jesus said:

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. In this world, you will have tribulation, but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world." — John 16:33(KJV)

You are protected in Christ. There is no need for fear or limitation. Your life is hidden in Him hallelujah!

PRAYER:

Lord, I hide my life in You today. I cover my business, family, career, and finances under Your protection.

TO-DO LIST:

Begin to place every area of your life—your business, family, career, and finances—under Christ's protection. Whatever you fear or are unsure about, entrust it to Him.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 13

NEW LIFE

SCRIPTURE:

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new."

— 2 Corinthians 5:17(KJV)

REFLECTION:

Hallelujah! You have a new life in Christ Jesus, once you surrender all to Him. After accepting Christ as your Lord and personal Savior, God gives you a clean slate, a new platform, and fresh opportunities. Everything from your past has been forgiven. You are no longer that person; your identity is now in Christ.

Christ becomes your hope of glory, and you are adopted into God's family. Forget all past wrongdoings, addictions, sexual sins, jealousy, envy, and hatred. By the blood of Jesus, God has wiped away all your sins. He sees you as His image and likeness, and your new identity is in Christ.

Live this new life, follow Jesus, and let the Holy Spirit guide you through the process. Hallelujah!

PRAYER:

Lord, help me to fully experience this new life today and be conscious of the new identity I have in You.

TO-DO LIST:

Accept your new identity in Christ, walk in faith, and affirm it daily by the confession of your mouth.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 14

YOU HAVE A BALANCED LIFE

SCRIPTURE:

"But now, by giving Himself completely at the Cross, actually dying for you, Christ brought you over to God's side and put your lives together, whole and holy in His presence."

— Colossians 1:22(MSG)

REFLECTION:

Christ's death, burial, and resurrection brought us many privileges, one of which is a balanced life. Through Him, our lives are no longer lived in darkness or confusion. He has predestined our future, and our part is to align with His plan. God knows all about you and will ensure the best for your life.

The only way to understand His plans and will for you is by yielding to the Holy Spirit. He knows the will of the Father and is always ready to guide and help you.

As our opening verse says, you are whole and holy. No matter what you have done in the past, the Cross has made you complete. Your life is now balanced in Christ, and He in you is your hope of glory.

TO-DO LIST:

Confess today: "My life is complete and balanced. Christ in me is my hope of glory."

PRAYER:

Lord, help me submit fully to Your lordship and trust You as You mold me.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 15

THE VINE, THE BRANCHES, AND THE VINE-DRESSER

SCRIPTURE:

"I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing ".

— John 15:5(KJV)

REFLECTION:

A vine is a plant that produces branches, and Jesus says He is the true vine. The branches are us, and without the vine, the branches cannot survive. God is the Vine-Dresser, caring for both the vine and the branches.

This teaches us that a Christian cannot survive or bear fruit without God. He is our source, guiding us in this Christian journey. Whenever you feel weak or unmotivated, depend on Jesus, the true vine, and make Him your only option.

TO-DO LIST:

Speak these words aloud today: "Christ is my only option."

PRAYER:

Lord, help me to depend on You and lean on You as I embark on this Christian journey.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 16

THE FRUIT OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

SCRIPTURE:

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law."

— Galatians 5:22–23 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

Following from the vine and branches analogy, we, as branches, are meant to bear fruit. The fruit of the Spirit includes love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, and temperance.

These fruits are produced in the life of every believer by the Holy Spirit. They help us in daily life, distinguish us as Christians, and guide our conduct. The Bible says there is no law against such fruit, meaning there is no rigid formula for practicing them the Holy Spirit provides wisdom and understanding.

If you lack any of these fruits, depend daily on the Holy Spirit. He can cultivate in you love, joy, peace, and all the other fruits abundantly.

TO-DO LIST:

Ask the Holy Spirit today to produce these fruits in your life. If you have been told you lack love, the Holy Spirit can fill you abundantly with it.

PRAYER:

Lord, help me exercise these fruits, and let them abound in my life.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 17

AMBASSADORS OF CHRIST

SCRIPTURE:

"Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God".

— 2 Corinthians 5:20 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

An ambassador represents someone. As believers, we are God's representatives on earth, speaking on His behalf. We are also His masterpiece.

Let your actions glorify God so that others can see His character in you. Paul says in 1 Corinthians that we are a spectacle to the world; let your light shine before men. This does not mean being a people-pleaser or pretending to be good outwardly while harboring sin inside. First, glorify God, and your life will draw others to Christ.

Being an ambassador of Christ requires the Holy Spirit, who guides us and helps us become more like Jesus. The Holy Spirit searches the deep things of God and enables us to live intentionally for Him.

TO-DO LIST:

Call yourself an ambassador of Christ five times today, and let it stay in your mind.

PRAYER:

Lord, help me represent You on earth. May people not reject You because of my behavior, and may I draw others to Christ through my life.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 18

THE CHRISTIAN JOURNEY

SCRIPTURE:

"Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain".

— 1 Corinthians 9:24 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

The Christian journey is like a race. In sports, only the fastest and most disciplined athlete wins the prize. Similarly, in the Christian life, we must be disciplined, determined, and intentional, keeping our eyes on Christ.

This journey requires prayer, guidance from the Holy Spirit, study of God's Word, and perseverance.

As 1 Corinthians 9:25 says:

"All good athletes exercise self-control in all things. They do it to receive a perishable crown, but we an imperishable".

Unlike earthly competitions, our race is for eternal reward. Stay focused and depend entirely on God, who works in us to will and to do His good pleasure. Remember, it is the end that matters, regardless of your current circumstances.

TO-DO LIST:

Outline spiritual disciplines such as fasting, prayer, and Bible study that will strengthen you for this journey, and start today.

PRAYER:

Lord, help me to be fit and disciplined for this Christian journey.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 19

PRAYER

SCRIPTURE:

"But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word".

— Acts 6:4 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

Paul encourages us to devote ourselves to prayer because prayer is essential for a Christian's survival. Prayer brings power and strength, opens doors, and releases people from bondage.

Prayer deepens our relationship with God and brings heavenly power to the earth. It works best alongside the study of God's Word, forming a powerful synergy. Prayer is a lifestyle, not a one-time activity.

James 5:16 reminds us:

"The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous person avails much".

Effective and fervent prayer is heartfelt, persistent, and Spirit-driven. It requires perseverance—continuing steadfastly even when it is hard. Developing persistent prayer is essential for spiritual growth.

TO-DO LIST:

Start developing the habit of prayer today.

PRAYER:

Lord, help me to be consistent, persistent, and Spirit-led in my prayer life.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 20

SUFFICIENT GRACE

SCRIPTURE:

"And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me".

— 2 Corinthians 12:9 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

When Paul was overwhelmed by his limitations, he asked God to remove his burden. God responded, "My grace is sufficient for you."

This message is for those at their lowest point, ready to give up, or struggling to run the Christian race. God is saying today: My grace is enough.

Paul also said, "When I am weak, then I am strong." Your weakness becomes the stage where Jesus is glorified. God's power works best in our limitations.

All you need today is to draw strength from the Lord, submit fully, and rely on His grace. Boast in your weakness, for God's grace is abundantly available there.

TO-DO LIST:

Ask the Lord for His grace over every aspect of your life and submit fully to Him today.

PRAYER:

Lord, help me so that my weaknesses will not defeat me but become an avenue for Your grace to be multiplied in my life.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 21

WALK IN THE LIGHT OF GOD

SCRIPTURE:

"This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all."

— 1 John 1:5 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

Light exposes darkness. When there is light, you can see the end from the beginning. Jesus tells us that He is our light, which means our future and present are secure, and nothing can destroy them.

As 1 John 1:5 explains, the Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has never overpowered it. The light of God shines through every situation, opposition, and evil. Darkness represents sin, evil, death, and everything that can cause pain—but through God's light, you shall overcome. His light also guides us. Psalm 119:105 says:

"Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path."

God's light directs the path of the righteous. If you are confused in your journey—whether in academics, career, business, or personal life—Jesus' light can show you the right path. As Scripture says, the path of the righteous shines ever brighter because of God's light.

Today, all you need to do is remain under God's light and let it shine in your life until the perfect day.

Hallelujah!

TO-DO LIST:

Ask the Lord to shine His light in every area of your life and remove any darkness from it.

PRAYER:

Lord, I pray that Your light will fill my life, guide my steps, and use me as a vessel for Your purposes.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 22

EXERCISE YOUR AUTHORITY IN CHRIST

SCRIPTURE:

"Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you."

— Luke 10:19 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

God has given us power over the kingdom of darkness through the name of Jesus. The Bible declares that at the name of Jesus every knee will bow and every tongue will confess. This authority is part of our inheritance as Christians, and our responsibility is to exercise it.

We are not ignorant of the devices of the enemy, but we have a name that is above every other name, and we already have access to divine authority. As a Christian, do not allow the enemy to suppress or intimidate you. Use the name of Jesus.

The serpents and scorpions that have been troubling your life for too long must be cast out in the name of Jesus. Speak the Word of God to every situation every unrest, fear, or challenge—and watch things begin to turn around for your good.

Authority comes from Scripture. You cannot effectively command the enemy without knowing the Word of God. Even Jesus used Scripture to overcome the devil; He did not use a sword or call angels, but stood firmly on the Word of God. In the same way, you must believe in the Word you speak (2 Corinthians 4:13).
Today, I encourage you to exercise your authority in Christ.

TO-DO LIST:
Speak to any situation in your life and expect the manifestation of God's power.

PRAYER:
I pray that you exercise your authority in Christ today.

Just as the seventy-two returned to Jesus rejoicing that demons were subject to them, so shall it be in your life, in Jesus' name.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 23

GOD OF ALL POSSIBILITIES

SCRIPTURE:

"But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible."

— Matthew 19:26 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

God is the Father of all possibilities. He can do what no human being can do in your life. As the popular saying goes, "What God cannot do does not exist."

However, this becomes a reality when you believe. Mark 9:23 says, "If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes." When you trust God and believe in His promises, He will surely work things out for you.

Today, I encourage you to look beyond the walls of your problems and situations. See God at the center of it all, and believe that He is able to do the impossible.

In Jeremiah 32:27 (KJV), God says:

"Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there anything too hard for Me?"

God is the God of all flesh and our ever-present help. He can help you, heal you, fight for you, go where you cannot go, and bring your impossible dreams to pass. Believe in God today, and watch impossible things become possible.

TO-DO LIST:

Speak words of possibility over the areas of your life that have been limiting you.

PRAYER:

I pray that everything you have hoped and prayed for becomes possible for you today.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 24

GRATITUDE

SCRIPTURE:

"In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you."

— 1 Thessalonians 5:18 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

Gratitude is a lifestyle for every Christian. It is one way we express our love for God, and God delights in a grateful heart. Showing gratitude to God is His will for every believer.

The Bible instructs us to give thanks to God in all situations whether good, bad, or difficult. Thanksgiving is not based on circumstances but on our trust in God.

One reason we should give thanks to God is found in Psalm 107:1 "Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever."

God is good by nature; that is who He is, regardless of our situation. He is always good.

Furthermore, His mercy endures forever and is renewed every morning. As long as we live, we remain beneficiaries of God's enduring mercy.

Reflect on these qualities of God and give Him thanks, even before considering the earthly blessings He has given you.

Learn to give thanks to God, for it is His will for your life and the culture of a true Christian.

PRAYER:

Lord, help me to develop a heart of gratitude.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 25

DELIGHT YOURSELF IN THE LORD

SCRIPTURE:

"Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart".

— Psalm 37:4 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

Delight means deep joy, pleasure, satisfaction, and enjoyment that comes from the heart—not just temporary happiness, but a lasting inner joy. It is important for every believer to delight in the Lord and find true satisfaction in Him.

There may be times when difficult circumstances or confusion arise. The way to overcome such moments is by finding joy and peace in the Lord and in His Word.

There are several benefits to delighting yourself in the Lord. One of them is found in Psalm 37:23:

"The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD, and He delights in his way".

When you delight in the Lord, your steps are established by Him. Because your heart is filled with joy and peace, your mind is calm, allowing the Lord to speak to you clearly and guide your path.

Always return to God's Word. His arms are wide open to welcome you. Another reason to delight in the Lord is that God's Word never changes. Isaiah 40:8 (KJV) says: "The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God shall stand forever".

When you delight yourself in God's Word, confusion disappears, and assurance fills your heart. You are confident that everything will work out because you stand on the unfailing Word of God.

Learn to delight yourself in the Word of God.

PRAYER:

Lord, may I always find joy, peace, and happiness in You.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 26

YOUR HEART IS A TOOL

SCRIPTURE:

"Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life".

— Proverbs 4:23 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

Your heart is a tool for God. It is the avenue through which we receive from Him, so we must be careful about what goes into our hearts.

As Christians, we should daily fill our hearts with God's Word. This is because, as stated in Matthew 15:18–19 (KJV):

"But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart… For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts…"

Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks. Our Christian journey is sustained by confession and affirmation we speak God's Word in every situation we face.

Therefore, guard your heart diligently. Whatever things are true, pure, and good, ensure you filter them through God's Word (Philippians 4:8).

Your heart can be a tool for good or for evil; it all depends on what you allow into it. It can also become a tool for the devil if you permit negative thoughts to dominate it, or a powerful tool for God if you continually feed it with His Word.

God looks at the contents of the heart your intentions and motives. No wonder David consistently prayed this prayer in Psalm 51:10 (KJV):

"Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me". Every believer must learn to pray this prayer as we grow in our walk with God.

TO-DO LIST:

Pray with Psalm 51:10.

PRAYER:

May the Lord create a clean heart in you, and may your heart be a tool for God's glory.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 27

OVERCOMING TEMPTATION

"There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it".

- 1 Corinthians 10:13 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

Temptation is something every Christian faces. Being tempted does not mean you are weak or sinful it simply means you are human. Even people who love God deeply still face temptation.

Temptation often comes through our thoughts, our feelings, or the situations we find ourselves in. Sometimes it looks attractive, easy, or harmless, but it can slowly pull us away from God if we are not careful.

The good news is that God understands our struggles. He has promised that He will never allow temptation to become too much for us. No matter the situation, God always provides a way out. Our role is to notice that way and choose it, even when it is not easy and also the scripture says Psalm 34:19 (KJV)

"Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all."

God will surely deliver you. One of the best ways to overcome temptation is by filling our hearts with God's Word. When we know what God says, it becomes easier to say "no" to what is wrong. Prayer also helps us stay strong. When we talk to God honestly about our struggles, He gives us the strength to stand.

Remember, victory over temptation does not come from our own strength but from depending on God daily.

TO DO LIST:

Avoid situations that easily lead you into temptation and ask God for help

PRAYER:

God will deliver you from any temptation in Jesus name

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 28

THE POWER OF GOOD ASSOCIATIONS

SCRIPTURE:

"He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed".

- Proverbs 13:20 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

Who you spend your time with has a huge impact on your life. Good associations can inspire, guide, and strengthen you in your walk with God, while bad associations can lead you into temptation, wrong decisions, and even destruction.

As Christians, it's important to choose friends and companions who encourage your faith, build your character, and point you closer to God. Surround yourself with people who pray, read the Word, and live righteously. Their influence will help you stay on the path of wisdom and godliness.

The Bible also warns in 1 Corinthians 15:33 (KJV):

"Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners".

This shows that bad company can slowly pull you away from God without you even noticing. On the other hand, wise and godly companions will lift you up, hold you accountable, and inspire you to live for God.

Things to check in people you associate with;

- Do they encourage your faith or weaken it?
- Pray for discernment to know who to spend your time with and also Seek out mentors, godly friends, and fellowship that strengthens your walk with Christ.

A good association can either strengthen or weaken your walk with God, so be careful.

TO DO LIST:

Pray for your friends today and tell God to help you choose your friends wisely.

PRAYER:

In the name of Jesus, I disassociate you from any evil company in Jesus name.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 29

THE POWER IN THE NAME OF JESUS

SCRIPTURE:

"Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow…"

- Philippians 2:9-10 (KJV)

REFLECTION

The name of Jesus is powerful! God says, "He gave him a name above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow" (Philippians 2:9-10). That means His name carries authority over everything in heaven, on earth, and even in the spiritual realm.

There is no other name that can save us. The Bible says, "There is no other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved"- (Acts 4:12). When we call on Jesus, we are safe and made right with God.

The name of Jesus also has power over the enemy. "In my name they will cast out demons and speak new languages" - (Mark 16:17). When we speak His name in faith, darkness must flee, and His power works in our lives.

Jesus' name also gives power in prayer. He said, "Whatever you ask in my name, I will do it, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son" - (John 14:13). When we pray in His name, God answers according to His will.

Finally, everything we do should honor His name: "And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God" - (Colossians 3:17). Our actions, words, and thoughts should reflect Him.

TO DO LIST:

Exercise the name of Jesus in any situation on your life

PRAYER:

Lord help me to be conscious of your name.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

DAY 30

KEEPING A CONSISTENT DEVOTIONAL LIFE

SCRIPTURE:

"Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded".

— James 4:8 (KJV)

REFLECTION:

A devotional life is your *daily appointment with God, where your heart meets His presence. It is not about how long you spend, but about *consistency and sincerity. Even Jesus, the Son of God, made it a priority to withdraw for prayer.

When we spend time in God's Word and in prayer, our faith is strengthened, our mind is renewed, and our soul is refreshed. Neglecting devotion leaves us spiritually weak and vulnerable, while consistency brings guidance, wisdom, and intimacy with God.

True devotion is heart over habit even a few focused minutes daily can transform your life. A strong spiritual life begins in the quiet moments—not in the noise of the world. A devotional life is your daily appointment with God, where your heart speaks and listens. It is in this personal time that your faith is strengthened, your mind is renewed, and your soul finds rest.

Many Christians struggle spiritually because they neglect their devotional time. They may pray sporadically or read the Word occasionally, yet true growth comes from consistency. God desires more than our rituals—He wants our hearts, our time, and our devotion.

A devotional life is not about how long you pray or how many chapters you read. It is about showing up daily to be with God. Just like any relationship, if there is no communication, the connection begins to fade.

Jesus Himself, even with all His power and assignment, still made time to withdraw and pray. That means no one is too busy for God—only too distracted. Sometimes the problem is not that we don't have time, but that we don't create time.

TO-DO LIST:

Set a fixed daily time for your devotional (morning or before you go to bed).

PRAYER:

Lord help me to be consistent in seeking You daily. Remove distractions and teach me to hunger for Your Word in Jesus' name, Amen.

CONFESSION:

This is the day the Lord has made, and I will rejoice and be glad in it.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

OKOSUN RHODA is a devoted lover of God whose life is centered on faith, purpose, and service. She is passionate about knowing God deeply and helping others grow in their relationship with Him. As a purpose-driven individual, she believes that every person has a divine assignment and that a life surrendered to God is a life filled with meaning, direction, and impact.

Gifted with strong leadership qualities, she is committed to inspiring, mentoring, and empowering people to become all that God has called them to be. Her desire to see lives transformed by the power of God's Word has fueled her dedication to ministry, discipleship, and personal spiritual growth. Through her teachings, writings, and interactions with others, she seeks to encourage believers to remain steadfast in their faith and pursue a deeper walk with God.

Her journey with God has taught her the importance of consistency in spiritual disciplines, particularly in studying and meditating on the Scriptures. She firmly believes that a thriving relationship with God is not built on occasional encounters but on a daily commitment to seek Him through prayer, worship, and the study of His Word. This conviction inspired the writing of this book.

She wrote this book to inspire readers to draw closer to God and experience the joy of a consistent and intimate relationship with Him. Her heartfelt belief is that when individuals intentionally devote time each day to studying God's Word, they become spiritually strengthened, guided by divine wisdom, and transformed into the image of Christ. Through these pages, she encourages readers to develop a lifestyle of daily devotion and discover the life-changing power found in God's presence.

The author's desire is that this book will serve as a tool for spiritual growth, helping readers cultivate a deeper love for God, a stronger faith, and an unwavering commitment to His Word. She also has an Instagram page and podcast on Spotify called a Verse That Changed My Life where she shares daily spiritual verses from the bible and she hopes that every reader will be inspired to seek God wholeheartedly, trust Him completely, and experience the fullness of His purpose for their lives.

ABOUT THE BOOK

CALLED FOR MORE is a faith-based, Holy Spirit-inspired devotional designed to help believers deepen their relationship with God and grow in their daily walk with Him. Rooted in Scripture, this 30-day journey provides spiritual insights, encouragement, and practical truths that can be applied to everyday life.

Written in a simple, engaging, and easy-to-understand format, this devotional is crafted to help readers develop consistency in studying God's Word and building a vibrant prayer life. Each day's devotion includes a To-Do List for practical application, a Prayer Section to encourage fellowship with God, and a Daily Confession to strengthen faith through the declaration of God's promises.

More than a devotional guide, CALLED FOR MORE is a companion for spiritual growth. It is a reminder that God has called every believer into a deeper relationship with Him and a life filled with purpose. Through daily devotion and the study of His Word, we discover His plans, grow in faith, and become all He has created us to be.

The title CALLED FOR MORE reflects God's invitation to move beyond spiritual complacency and continually pursue a greater knowledge of Him. As we seek Him daily, we press forward toward the higher calling He has placed upon our lives. "I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus".

— Philippians 3:14 (KJV)

May this devotional inspire you to draw closer to God, remain steadfast in His Word, and embrace all that He has prepared for you. You are called for more.
